

DIGITAL SERVICES

Every day hundreds of people log in to our digital services. This makes Tamro an important focal point for Swedish pharmaceutical logistics. You can clearly see what is happening to your goods – now and over time. We customize analyses and reports according to your preferences and you are always welcome to suggest improvements.

WHY CHOOSE THIS SERVICE?

Our digital services simplify your routine tasks and provide you with valuable information about your customers' buying behavior. You get a good overview of your goods and we give you full insight into our work. We work continuously on improving user friendliness and content – in the digital world nothing stands still.

DESCRIPTION OF THE SERVICE

With our digital services, you can track your goods all the way from incoming delivery to outgoing despatch. All information about the flow of your goods is registered. Certain information is provided directly, so you can take action quickly. Other information is delivered to you, according to your specifications, for deeper analysis in peace and quiet.
